

DECLARATION OF CONFORMITY

Acting on behalf of _____, I/we declare that I/we acknowledge that participants in meetings / general meetings of the Polish Biomethane Organization (PBO):

- may be competitors to each other / represent competing enterprises
- confidential information including business secrets of the participants may be disclosed and therefore declare as follows:

- I/we will not communicate any confidential information concerning the represented entity and which could have an impact on the business strategy or the activities of competitors, especially if it has no relation to the subject-matter/ agenda of the meeting
- I/we are in a position to assess which information is commercially confidential from the point of view of the entity represented
- I/we will clearly disclose which information is confidential to the entity I/we represent
- I/we will not disclose or in any way use confidential information that I/we might learn about during the meeting/gathering
- I/we are aware of the competition law provisions, in particular the prohibition, within the PBO and its bodies, of contracts, agreements, arrangements, and the exchange or unauthorised use of information that may result in anticompetitive activities as well as damage to or the legal liability of participants in meetings/gatherings and, in particular, the entities they represent.

Date: _____, Signatures: _____